

DID YOU KNOW?

Butterflies and bees help take pollen from one part of the flower—the ANTHER—to another part of the flower—the PISTIL, that leads to the eggs. This process called pollination is how a seed is formed to create new plants!

Help this butterfly take the pollen from the anther to the pistil.

Compliments of

yorkprofessionalpetsitting.com

info@yorkprofessionalpetsitting.com

289-221-4573

Pet Sitters International's Early Education Program helping kids become responsible pet owners www.petsit.com